

The Gearld Inch Award for Chapter Leadership NOMINATION FORM

The Gearld Inch Award is given to recognize the special efforts of those volunteers who have been instrumental in keeping chapters and local/regional groups viable and meaningful to members. Gearld Inch is a founding member of the London Region HRAC Association and has been a member for over 25 years. His main contribution to the chapter and the membership at large has been his unwavering commitment to and support for continuous education programs. Mr. Inch was also a founding member of the Contractor Executive Organization ("CEO Group"), which evolved to become the ClimateCare Co-operative. He has been honoured with the HRAI Merit Award and a Lifetime Membership for his contributions to the development of HRAI and the Canadian HVACR Industry.
